

CONTENTS

Foreword	7
Acknowledgements	9
Introduction by Aman ur Rahman	11
Map	12
List of illustrations includes maps, color plates and table of tamgas	13
Bibliographic Abbreviations and Notes	15
I. Glyptic Art from Bactria to Gandhara: The Aman ur Rahman Collection
in Context by Judith A. Lerner	17
1. Introduction: Bactrian and Gandharan Glyptics and Their Geographical and Cultural Setting	17
2. Physical Characteristics of the Seals, Sealings and Tokens	21
3. Seal Ownership	27
4. The Representational Motifs	29
5. Some Matters of Style, Locality and Date	51
II. The Seal Inscriptions	55
A. Remarks on Bactrian Seal Inscriptions of the Post-Kushan Era by Nicholas Sims-Williams	55
1. Preliminary Remarks.....	55
2. Earlier Studies and Collections of Bactrian Seal Inscriptions	55
3. Seals of Women.....	56
4. Seals Belonging to Couples or Families?	56
5. Seals Belonging to a God or Temple?	56
6. Naming Formulae	56
7. Inscriptions Not Including a Name	57
8. The Seal Inscriptions of the Present Collection and the Bactrian Documents	58
B. The Brāhmī Inscriptions by Harry Falk	61
1. Local Uses of Kharoṣṭhī and Brāhmī	61
2. The Inscriptions	62
3. Orthography	63
III. Catalogue
A. The Seals, Sealings and Tokens by Judith A. Lerner	65
1. Organization and Preliminary Remarks	65
2. Catalogue of Seals, Sealings and Tokens	67

B. The Iranian Inscriptions: Bactrian, Middle Persian and Sogdian
by Nicholas Sims-Williams	179
1. Preliminary Remarks	179
2. The Seal Inscriptions	179

Appendix

1. Frequently Cited and Key Seals and Coins from Robert Göbl, Dokumente zur Geschichte der iranischen Hunnen in Baktrien und Indien ; and Pierfrancesco Callieri, Seals and Sealings from the North-West of the Indian Subcontinent and Afghanistan (4th Century BC - 11th Century AD)	205
2. Concordance of Catalogue and Accession Numbers	207
Bibliography	209
Indices	219
1. Index for Chapter I	219
2. Middle Iranian Index	221
3. Brāhmī Index	222

Color Plates

Color Plate I: Intaglios

Color Plate II: Selected Sealings and Tokens